

“Italian Market” Now Open

June 2006 - Blue Bell - The latest buzz in Blue Bell is the Italian Market and their delicious Italian, Jewish and other specialty homemade dishes. The Italian Market is conveniently located only 2 miles north of RT 73 on DeKalb Pike (Rt. 202) across from the Blue Bell Country Club in the Shoppes at Village Square. Their authentic delicatessen's menu ranges from a variety of meats and seafood to pasta, appetizers, salads and desserts. Their signature item that they are most famous for is their authentic cheeses which can be found in their award winning sandwiches.

Customers to the Italian Market also have many options on their dining experience; they have the choice of ordering food for pick up, dining in the tastefully decorated dining room or having their entire event catered by the Italian Market. Customers can also customize their own menus by ordering trays that can each serve up to 14 people. Some trays include: pastas, appetizers, meats, seafood and desserts.

The Italian Market is also home to master pastry chef MaryAnn Coubaugh, who previously worked at LeBec-Fin before joining the staff at the Italian Market this past year. MaryAnn prepares fresh desserts daily and makes her famous shortcakes and dessert trays available anytime for your special occasion. The Italian Market is open for business Monday-Thursday from 11am-7pm, Friday-Saturday from 11am-8pm, and Sunday 10am-4pm.
